Yap Siew Chooi (“the Complainant”) lodged a complaint through Association of Maybank Class One Officers (AMCO) under section 56(1) of the Industrial Relations Act 1967 that Maybank Berhad (“the Company”) did not comply with Award No. 788 of 2007 in Case No. 5(1)/3-702/03.

CONSENT AWARD

On 23.7.2008, Ms. Lizzy Ninan of Messrs T.M. Varughese & Co., Counsel for the Company, and Ms. G.S. Kavitha of Messrs Muhendaran Sri, Counsel for the Complainant, were pleased to inform this Honourable Court that this Case has been amicably settled on the following terms:

- “1. The Bank will remit a sum of RM41,866.00 being arrears of salary and bonus plus the employer’s EPF contribution of RM6,707.00 totaling RM48,573.00 to the Complainant’s Solicitors on their undertaking to place it in a interest-earning fixed deposit as stakeholders in their client’s account.*
- 2. The Complainant’s Solicitors shall pay out the above said sum together with the accrued interest to the concerned party subject to the outcome of the proceedings in the High Court.*
- 3. Subject to the outcome of the proceedings in the High Court, the Complainant’s Solicitors shall remit the EPF contributions of both parties to the EPF to credit the Complainant’s account.”.*

The Court recorded the settlement of this Case according to the above terms.

HANDED DOWN AND DATED 23 JULY 2008.
